Welcome To

It is an honor and a compliment to have you as a patient!
Come in and Let Us Show You the Difference!

Thank you for taking the time to review our OFFICE POLICIES.
Please let us know if you have any questions or concerns. We are here to assist you.

Patients cannot be seen until all paperwork is read signed and completed
Minors must have a guardian signature

APPOINTMENTS:

- Any patient under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a parent for all appointments
- Reminder appointment phones calls/texts and 2-week reminder postcards are a courtesy to our patient's. Please understand it is your responsibility to know when your appointment is. If a message is left PLEASE call to confirm you received the message.
- Please help us to serve you better by keeping scheduled appointments. Kindly give 48 hrs for any cancellation. Non-emergency missed appointments/cancelled without sufficient notice can result in a fee.

EMERGENCY COVERAGE:

Please contact our office. Our office has 24 hour coverage.

INSURANCE & FINANCIAL INFORMATION:

We submit and file all of your insurance claims for you as a courtesy. Please verify with our office staff any questions pertaining to your insurance. We will gladly do a courtesy benefits check for you. Please notify us of ANY changes in your insurance coverage PRIOR to your visit. Our office does not participate with Medicaid or Medicare or State Funded policies.

If you have insurance, we will gladly help you receive your maximum allowable benefits. In order to achieve these goals, we need your assistance and your understanding of your insurance and our financial policy. Please ask if you are unsure of anything. We require a copy of ALL insurance identification cards and a copy of a patient's license or ID card.

Please be familiar with all your insurance terms and frequencies. Our practice is committed to providing the best treatment for our patients and we charge what is usual and customary for our area. (See our link on our web page for further information on area rates) You are responsible for payment regardless of any insurance company's "arbitrary" determination of UCR (usual and customary rates) quote.

Many insurance provider directories are not up to date and sometimes we cannot access that information as quickly as needed. We MUST emphasize that as medical care provider, our relationships is with you, NOT your insurance company. We will gladly submit all forms needed for a "pre" authorization for treatment to your insurance company for you. If an insurance carrier has not paid within 60 days of billing, any unpaid balances are due and payable in full from you immediately.

Cash, Check, Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover Card, Flex Account Cards, HSA, FLEX, Care Credit are gladly accepted

Dr DiMento also offers several different payment options plans, from short-term to long-term – please ask at front desk.

We will submit for insurance's providing:

- All patient forms are filled out and the information is correct and we have copies of Insurance Cards
- We are able to verify coverage by telephone or internet and have a complete mailing address and current phone number

Please be prepared at appointment time to pay your estimated patients responsibility portion not covered by your insurance. Please understand that payment of your bill is considered part of the treatment. Interest will accrue and will be added to all accounts over 60 days post insurance payment. Any disputes with balances due must be brought to our attention within 30 days of 1st billing.

We realize that temporary financial problems do arise and we encourage you to contact us promptly for assistance in the management of your account. To avoid any misunderstandings, we invite you to discuss any financial problems or hardship you may have with our office. Please inquire as to payment options that our office may offer.

ASSIGNMENT OF BENEFITS:

I authorize the release of any medical information necessary to process my insurance claim(s). I authorize and request payment of medical benefits directly to my physicians. I agree this authorization will cover all medical services rendered until such authorization is revoked by me in writing. I understand and agree that regardless of my insurance status, I am ultimately responsible for the balance on my account for any professional services rendered. I will notify you of any changes in my health status or changes in my insurance status prior to appointments. In the event my account is assigned for collection, I agree to pay an additional collection fee – the greater of $25.00 fee or 30% collection fee based on the total amount overdue as well as any associated attorney fees.

Notice of Privacy Practices (HIPAA)

8-19-13

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review this notice carefully.

Your medical record may contain personal information about your health. This information may identify you and relate to your past, present or future physical or mental health condition and related health care services and is called Protected Health Information (PHI). This Notice of Privacy Practices describes how we may use and disclose your PHI in accordance with applicable law. It also describes your rights regarding how you may gain access to and control your PHI. We are required by law to maintain the privacy of PHI and to provide you with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to PHI. We are required to abide by the terms of this Notice of Privacy Practices. We reserve the right to change the terms of our Notice of Privacy Practices at any time. Any new Notice of Privacy Practices will be effective for all PHI that we maintain at that time. We will provide you with a copy of the revised Notice of Privacy Practices by posting a copy on our website, sending a copy to you in the mail upon request or providing one to you at your next appointment.

How we may use and disclose health care information about you:

For Care or Treatment: Your PHI may be used and disclosed to those who are involved in your care for the purpose of providing, coordinating, or managing your services. This includes consultation with clinical supervisors or other team members. Your authorization is required to disclose PHI to any other care provider not currently involved in your care. Example: If another physician referred you to us, we may contact that physician to discuss your care. Likewise, if we refer you to another physician, we may contact that physician to discuss your care or they may contact us.

For Payment: Your PHI may be used and disclosed to any parties that are involved in payment for care or treatment. If you pay for your care or treatment completely out of pocket with no use of any insurance, you may restrict the disclosure of your PHI for payment. Example: Your payer may require copies of your PHI during the course of a medical record request, chart audit or review.

For Business Operations: We may use or disclose, as needed, your PHI in order to support our business activities including, but not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, licensing, and conducting or arranging for other business activities. We may also disclose PHI in the course of providing you with appointment reminders or leaving messages on your phone or at your home about questions you asked or test results. Example: We may share your PHI with third parties that perform various business activities (e.g., Council on Accreditation or other regulatory or licensing bodies) provided we have a written contract with the business that requires it to safeguard the privacy of your PHI.

Required by Law: Under the law, we must make disclosures of your PHI available to you upon your request. In addition, we must make disclosures to the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services for the purpose of investigating or determining our compliance with the requirements of the Privacy Rule, if so required.

Without Authorization: Applicable law and ethical standards permit us to disclose information about you without your authorization only in a limited number of other situations. Examples of some of the types of uses and disclosures that may be made without your authorization are those that are:

- Required by Law, such as the mandatory reporting of child abuse or neglect or mandatory government agency audits or investigations (such as the health department)
- Required by Court Order
- Necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a person or the public. If information is disclosed to prevent or lessen a serious threat it will be disclosed to a person or persons reasonably able to prevent or lessen the threat, including the target of the threat.

Verbal Permission: We may use or disclose your information to family members that are directly involved in your receipt of services with your verbal permission.

With Authorization: Uses and disclosures not specifically permitted by applicable law will be made only with your written authorization, which may be revoked. Your explicit authorization is required to release psychotherapy notes and PHI for the purposes of marketing, subsidized treatment communication and for the sale of such information.

Your rights regarding your PHI

You have the following rights regarding PHI we maintain about you. To exercise any of these rights, please submit your request in writing to our Privacy Officer:

- Right of Access to Inspect and Copy. You have the right, which may be restricted only in exceptional circumstances or with documents released to us, to inspect and copy PHI that may be used to make decisions about service provided.
- Right to Amend. If you feel that the PHI we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information although we are not required to agree to the amendment.
- Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request an accounting of certain of the disclosures that we make of your PHI. We may charge you a reasonable fee if you request more than one accounting in any 12-month period.
- Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the use or disclosure of your PHI for services, payment, or business operations. We are not required to agree to your request.
- Right to Request Confidential Communication. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about PHI matters in a specific manner (e.g. telephone, email, postal mail, etc.)
- Right to a Copy of this Notice. You have the right to a copy of this notice.
